

With the help of partner Sarah Parady, Denver resident Jennifer Blair filed a Charge of Discrimination with the Colorado Civil Rights Division against 9HealthFair, a nonprofit that sponsors health fairs throughout the state of Colorado.

Ms. Blair pointed out that 9HealthFair's website did not allow trans individuals to register for appropriate medical services and contained language that was not trans-inclusive. Upon receipt of Ms. Blair's Charge, the organization came to the table and agreed to make the needed changes. Lowrey Parady congratulates Ms. Blair on her successful activism on behalf of her community.
